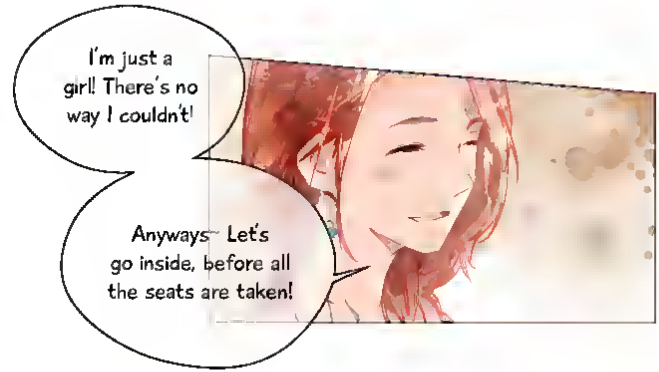
Shouldn't we have gone to a better place for our date? You know, with Western food and some candles?

But I havent had spicy food in forever! Besides, this is more of a business discussion than a date...
It was risky enough for me to eat with a rich person like you, and now we're going somewhere with food that I don't even like...

So you care about boring gossip like that?



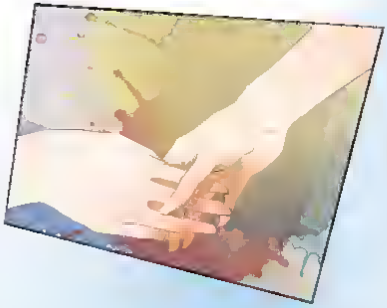
I'm just a girl! There's no way I couldn't!
Anyways~ Let's go inside, before all the seats are taken!

I'll have to call you
"Manager Yang" soon!

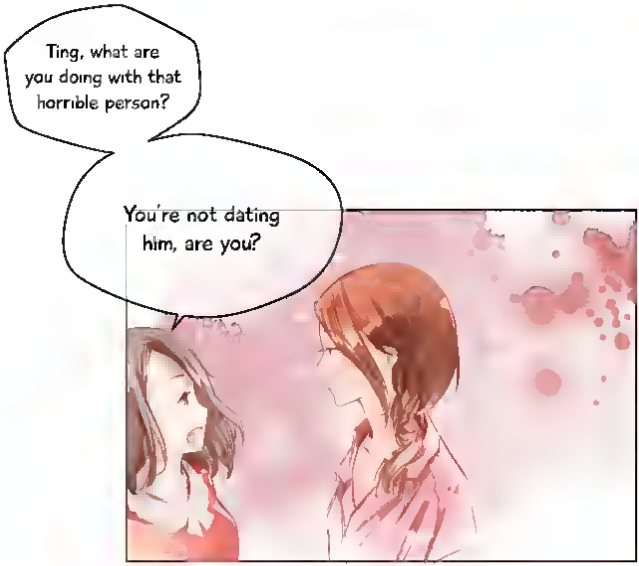
What are they doing?
Geez. Did we get stood up?

Huh?

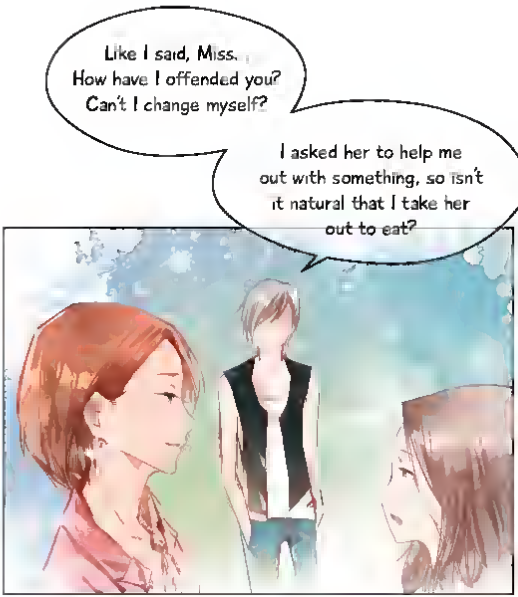
Yao Yao?
Why is it that we run into some-one troublesome every time?



What's happening?
I dunno.
Looks pretty complicated.
Come for a sec

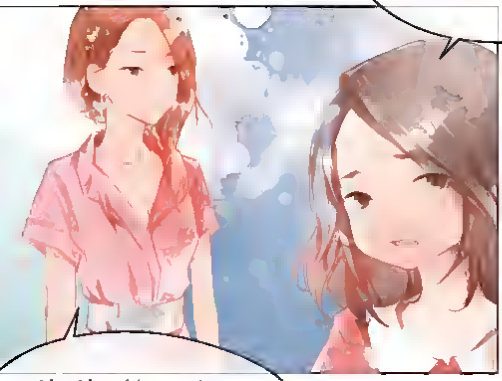


Ting, what are you doing with that horrible person?
You're not dating him, are you?



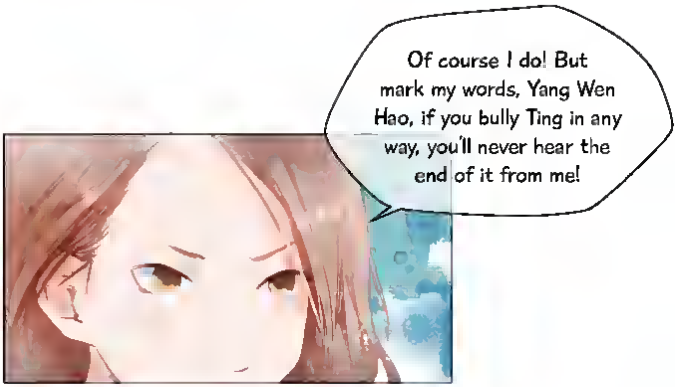
Like I said, Miss.
How have I offended you?
Can't I change myself?
I asked her to help me out with something, so isn't it natural that I take her out to eat?

Really? You're going to use this terrible excuse to date my friend?



Yao Yao, I know that you're worried about me, but we really do have business to discuss.

Really?
Yes! Don't you believe me?



Of course I do! But mark my words, Yang Wen Hao, if you bully Ting in any way, you'll never hear the end of it from me!

Rather than worrying about her, I think you should focus on yourself instead.

Hang in there, princess~
We'll be rivals soon enough.
Let's talk later tonight~
Rivals?

So you also invited Yang Wen Hao?
XIAO SHEN ZHE

Huh?
Why would I do that? And what took you two so long?

CHAPTER 12
LET'S DO IT!

We're almost done eating. Why don't we get to the discussion?

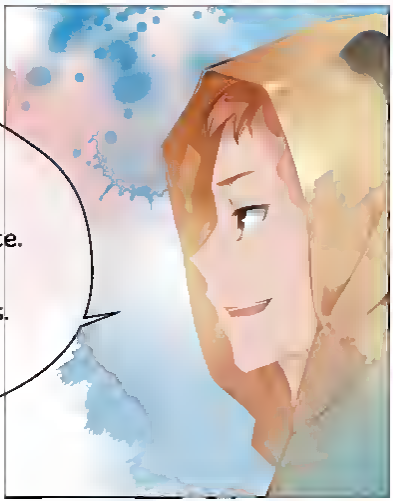
Hey! I was the one who put that piece in!
I can't stop~
Mmn~ Let me just have a bite~!

You've almost eaten everything! It's definitely not "just a bite"...
Slow down. You're going to burn your tongue.
Anyways, why don't you get us started here?

Gulp!

Well, that's how it is, I guess~ Yi Nuan, we wanted to discuss the renovation of your house with you today. I'm sure we all know that we've got a shortage of funds, so we're adjusting the design.
Nom.

Sorry for all the trouble...



Haha, there's no need to be so polite. After all, we're amazing designers.

Since your house is only 70 square meters, the biggest problem with the original design are the lack of storage space and lack of circulation and natural light in the living room... (etc.)

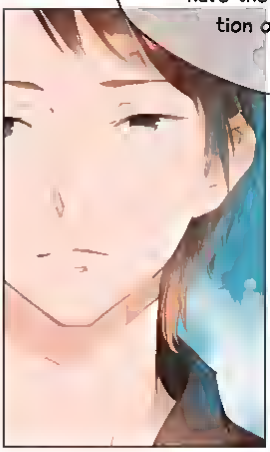
So we're going to use some DIY solutions, partially using varying themes to create a Mediterranean sort of ambience...

Basically, it means that we'll need to mix and match elements and colors because we don't have much money for materials.

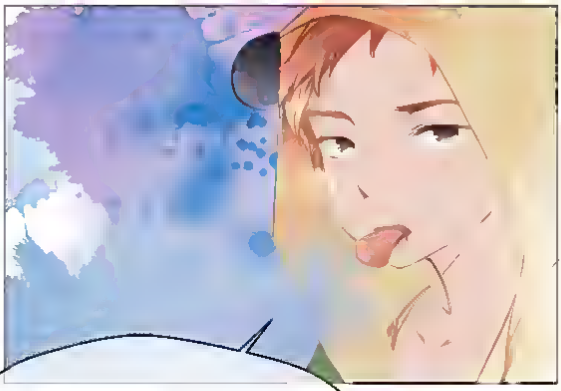
We'll need your help, Yi Nuan.

Looks like we'll have to try our luck at the workshop, Shen Zhe.

No problem.
What is this workshop?



It's a joint venture of some TV stations, a couple local workshops, and the largest builders in town. They're the most professional and have the largest selection of materials.
Since we're participating in the TV program, we'll be able to use it, and we'll get a little bit of funding.



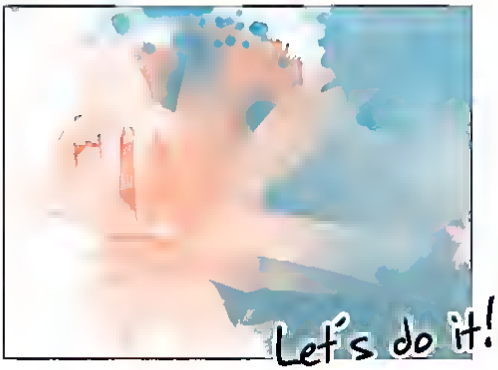
Dang! Why were we even worried in the first place, with a great place like that?

It's great, but we're technically not qualified to use it.

Fortunately, I'm familiar with the security guards there, so they'll let us in to pick up the leftover scraps, and we might be able to get our hands on the equipment if no one's using it.

Is there anything I can do?
Your sense of color is good, so we'll need your help when we're matching the colors up.
Okay!

And so... Design Studio Eleven began...



To be continued...
